

VOCABULARY: Where do we get information from?

UNIT 3: MEDIA

VOCABULARY: Where do we get information from?

Newspapers

Radio

Television

Internet

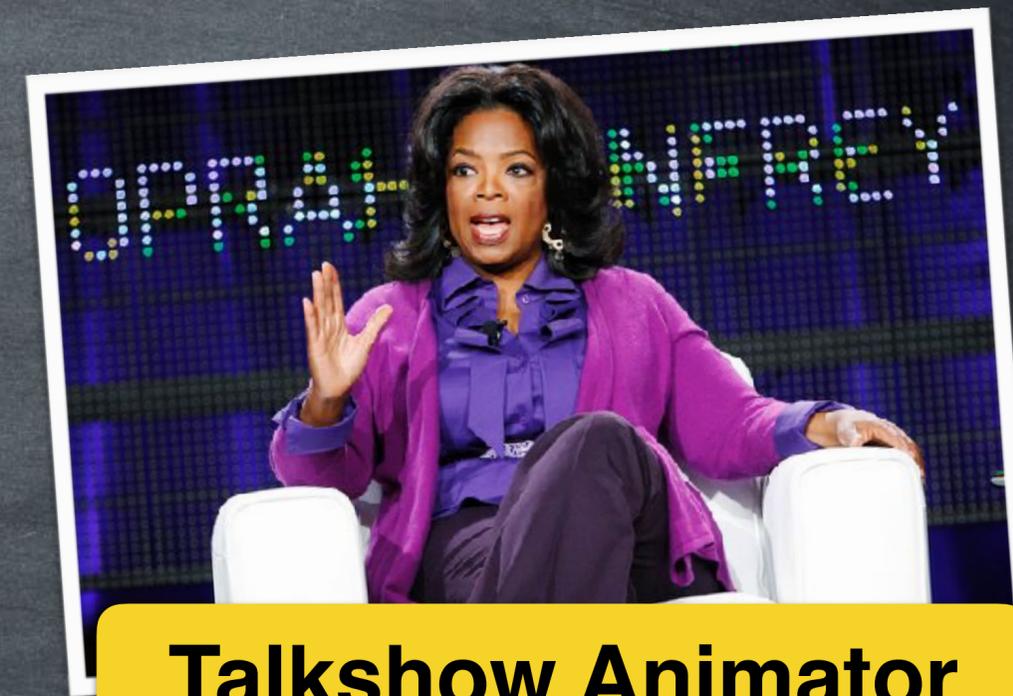

VOCABULARY: Media Jobs

TV Reporter

Actor

Talkshow Animator

Web Designer

Social Media Manager

VOCABULARY: Media Jobs

Fill in the chart with the words in the box.

actor - columnist - reporter - actress - webmaster - talkshow animator - movie director - producer - web designer - editor - blogger - correspondent - news anchor

Newspapers	Television	Movies	Internet

VOCABULARY: Media Jobs

UNIT 3: MEDIA

Newspapers	Television	Movies	Internet
columnist editor correspondent	reporter news anchor talkshow animator	actor / actress movie director producer	webmaster web designer blogger

Vocabulary: Media Jargon

Fill in the chart with the words in the box.

talkshow - email - headlines - script - blogging - series - editorial - scenario - search engine - scene - audience - footage - column - readers - viewers - users

Newspapers	Television	Movies	Internet
	talkshow		email

Vocabulary: Media Jargon

Newspapers	Television	Movies	Internet
headlines editorial column readers	talkshow series footage viewers	script scenario scene audience	email blogging search engine users

VOCABULARY: Media

Fill in with the appropriate word:
internet - search engine - documentary -
movie director - emails - viewers

1. In Morocco, most TV _____ watch the news at 1pm.
2. "Home" is an interesting _____ movie on environment.
3. James Cameron is a famous _____.
4. Google is the most popular _____.
5. I want to send some _____ but there's a problem with my _____ connection.

VOCABULARY: Media

Fill in with the appropriate word:
internet - search engine - documentary -
movie director - emails - viewers

1. In Morocco, most TV viewers watch the news at 1pm.
2. "Home" is an interesting documentary movie on environment.
3. James Cameroun is a famous movie director.
4. Google is the most popular search engine.
5. I want to send some emails but there's a problem with my Internet connection.